These are not guaranteed, all-year slots. During first semester, evaluations will be made and opportunities to challenge or re-audition could lead to Symphonic Band members moving into Wind Ensemble and/or Wind Ensemble members moving into Symphonic Band.

Additionally, we will probably be employing a flexible instrumentation policy – there may be times when all the members of Wind Ensemble won't be needed and will rehearse and perform with the Symphonic Band. This should not be considered a "demotion" but simply the best use of the musician resources we have for both ensembles.

Of course, there may also be times when members of the Symphonic Band rehearse and perform with the Wind Ensemble for similar reasons
